INTELLIGENCE KNOWLEDGE CHECK

TRUSTED

Financial services

Recognized entity

groww.in is a well-known Indian online investment platform offering mutual funds and financial products, recognized as a legitimate financial services provider. Its domain aligns with a reputable brand, and there are no indications of malicious activity associated with it in threat intelligence sources.

SCAN EVIDENCE VERDICT

90 /100 LOW RISK

Based on prior intelligence, groww.in is a well-established, trusted Indian financial services platform with no known malicious activity. The real-time scan confirms a secure setup with valid SSL, HSTS, and no redirects, aligning with its reputable profile. The absence of critical security headers like CSP is typical for a large, trusted site and does not indicate malicious intent. Threat intelligence sources show no blocklist flags, further supporting its legitimacy.

1. Maintain regular security audits to ensure SSL certificates and headers remain properly configured.
2. Monitor for any future blocklist flags or security alerts, given the domain's high profile.
3. Ensure that security headers like CSP and Referrer-Policy are implemented to enhance security posture.
