INTELLIGENCE KNOWLEDGE CHECK

TRUSTED   Major tech company   Recognized entity microsoft.com is the official domain of Microsoft Corporation, a globally recognized technology giant. It is a well-established, reputable domain used for official products, services, and corporate information. No known associations with malicious activity or impersonation from training data.

SCAN EVIDENCE VERDICT

90 /100   LOW RISK

The domain microsoft.com is a well-known, trusted entity with a long registration history and valid SSL certificates issued by Microsoft. The real-time scan confirms its legitimacy, showing no malicious threats or blocklist flags, and the HTTPS configuration aligns with best practices. There are no indications of impersonation or malicious activity, and the redirect chain leads back to the same trusted domain. Overall, the evidence strongly supports that this is a legitimate, secure Microsoft domain.

1. Maintain standard monitoring to ensure SSL certificates remain valid and headers stay consistent.

2. Continue to verify DNS records periodically to confirm no unauthorized changes.

3. No immediate action required; the domain appears secure based on current evidence.
