INTELLIGENCE KNOWLEDGE CHECKTRUSTED

Major messaging platform / Communication service

Recognized entity

telegram.org is the official domain for Telegram Messenger, a globally recognized encrypted messaging app. It is a well-established, reputable service with a long-standing online presence, not associated with malicious activities or abuse infrastructure. Its registration details and history support its legitimacy.

SCAN EVIDENCE VERDICT85 /100 LOW RISK

The domain telegram.org is a well-known, reputable messaging platform with a long-standing history and strong brand recognition, confirmed by prior intelligence. The real-time scan shows a valid SSL certificate, proper DNS records, and no malicious blocklist flags, aligning with its trusted status. Minor technical headers are missing, but these are typical for large, established services and do not indicate malicious intent. Overall, the evidence confirms the domain's legitimacy and safety.

1. Maintain current trust status but monitor for any future blocklist or security alerts.
2. Ensure server security configurations are kept up-to-date, despite the absence of critical headers.
3. Periodically review DNS and SSL configurations to confirm ongoing security compliance.
4. No immediate action required; the domain remains a trusted communication platform.
